PREACHERS ASSUME A SANCTIMONIOUS ASPECT

Adopt Resolutions Calling Upon Gillett to Stop the Big Prize Fight For Second Time

Aeroplane Crosses English Channel

By Associated Press
DOVER, May 21.—For the second time within the year the English channel was crossed today by an aeroplane and again the honor rests with France. Count Jacques De Lesseps, a grand son of the late Ferdinand De Lesseps, the celebrated French engineer, driving a monoplane of the same model with which Louis Bleriot conquered the straits on July 25th, last duplicated the feat in a dense fog today. Starting at Calais he landed safely at the Wynston court farm. Fifty minutes were consumed during the journey. Bleriot's time was 33 minutes. DeLesseps intended making the trip from Calais to Dover and return without alighting in an effort to win the Ruinhart prize of $2,500, but the mist compelled him to descend. He expects to resume the flight at daylight.

POWELL WINS WHEN MEMSIC BREAKS ARM

By Associated Press
VERNON, Cal., May 21.—The fight between Lew Powell of San Francisco and George Memsic of Los Angeles, came to an unexpected end in the fourth round tonight. When Memsic went to his corner he found that his right arm was broken between the wrist and the elbow. The fight was stopped and Referee Eytan gave the decision to Powell.

The arm was broken near the close of the fourth when Powell stopped a right swing with the elbow. The four rounds were even and gave promise of an interesting milling. Memsic scored a clean knockdown in the first thirty seconds of fighting and drew first blood. During the preliminary B. Follett, a civil war veteran, dropped dead of heart failure.

EMPLOYEES OF PAPER COMPANY WIN THE FIGHT

By Associated Press
NEW YORK, May 21.—All the striking employees of the International Paper company will return to work Monday under the terms of an agreement entered into today between the officers of the company and the pulp makers and paper makers' unions.

The men received an increase in wages of six per cent, effective the first of August and the recognition of the union, one of the main concessions for which they fought. There will be no more Sunday work.

CANNOT PROSECUTE COTTON KING PRICE

By Associated Press
WASHINGTON, May 21.—Theodore Price of New York, the cotton king, indicted here for connection with the cotton leak of 1908, cannot be prosecuted in the District of Columbia, according to a ruling of the supreme court of the district today.

Price's plea that the grand jury which indicted him had as a member a government employee was sustained.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS ELECT NEW COMMANDER

NEW YORK, May 21.—Henry M. Duffield, of Michigan, was elected commander in chief of the naval military order of the Spanish American War veterans at the session of the National commandery today.

The Bonanza's ruling and binding plant is still running. Bring in your orders.

NOTABLES ARE ELECTED MEMBERS OF SUNDAY SCHOOL

By Associated Press
WASHINGTON, May 21.—President and Mrs. Taft, Colonel Roosevelt, King George of England, President Diaz of Mexico and William Bryan were made life members of the World's Sunday School association in convention today. For each of those so honored $1,000 had to be subscribed. The nomination of persons of less public renown continued until $65,000 was pledged for mission work.

CHAMPIONSHIP WRESTLING MATCH ON JUNE FIRST

By Associated Press
CHICAGO, May 21.—Arrangements were completed today to hold the Gotch-Sebysko wrestling bout in the Chicago Coliseum on the night of June 1st. The decision was reached after Mayor Busse refused to allow the match to be held on Memorial day.

Sky Pilots in Convention Would Fain Dictate to the Chief Executive of California.

Declare that the Jeffries-Johnson Fight Would be a National Disgrace and they Will Appeal to Taft.

By Associated Press
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 21.—A strong protest against the Jeffries-Johnson fight featured the closing hours of today's session of the Presbyterian general assembly here. A resolution calling on Governor Gillett of California to prevent the fight was introduced by Rev. F. L. Forbes, of Seattle, Wash., and referred to the committee on bills and overtures. The resolution reads: "Governor James N. Gillett, Sacramento, Cal.: 'The whole world is looking to you to redeem your state, the Pacific coast and the whole United States from the disgrace of the approaching fight between Jeffries and Johnson that will be fastened upon you, and the state you represent as well as the country of which you are a part. Virtue, decency and patriotism demand that you save your state and our nation's sacred birthday from the filth, vulgarity and brutality of an infamous prize fight on the Fourth of July. 'The morality, respect education and nobility of the youth of this land appeal to you to stop the contest. The law is in your hands and the public at large has a right to expect you to execute it.' The members of the assembly who oppose the proposed fight will attempt to have the appeal duplicated and sent to President Taft, with the request for federal interference in the holding of the fight on the Fourth of July, when the matter comes up Monday."
